White Wines

1 Pinot Grigio Catarratto, Carpriano, Sicily, Italy £5.50 £19

A great tasting Pinot Grigio Catarratto blend sourced straight from Sicily. Classic style with attractive flavours of pear, ripe apple, almond and a twist of lemon to finish. The Catarratto adds a lively acidity and fresh, fruity and delicate floral edge.

2 Chenin Blanc, Wide River, Robertson Winery, South Africa £5.75 £20

Clean and bright off-dry Chenin Blanc, peppery and aromatic, with tropical fruit flavours of ripe fig and melon backed up with crisp, refreshing acidity. Modern style wine from the fertile Robertson Valley.

3 Sauvignon Blanc, "Marcel Martin", Loire Valley, France £5.75 £20

A lovely fresh Sauvignon from the Loire Valley. Glass filling aromas of gooseberry and grapefruit notes. Fresh and vibrant with nicely integrated acidity, some complexity and a deliciously long refreshing finish.

4 Viognier, Baron Philippe de Rothschild, Languedoc-Roussillon, France, 2017 £24

This wine has an intense nose displaying a highly complex mix of fresh and preserved fruit aromas (apricot, peach, quince jelly) with some attractive floral notes. Very round on the palate, it combines powerful flavours with a rich and expansive structure to give a pleasant impression of fullness. A dense and substantial finish rounds off this ample and generous, elegantly creamy wine.

5 Fiano, "Carlomagno", Salento, Puglia, Italy, 2017 £24

The intense bouquet is of tropical fruit such as melon and banana, with hints of citrus. The palate is well balanced, with good acidity and length. Ideal with seafood/fish, this wine also pairs brilliantly with white meats & cheese.

6 Chardonnay, Fleur du Cap, Western cape, South Africa, 2012 £25

Fleur du Cap Chardonnay is barrel-fermented and is a straw yellow colour. The nose has delicate lime aromas, citrus and hints of spice and oak. A medium bodied wine with a good array of fruit, a pinch of wood and a captivating long finish.

7 Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough, "Honu" New Zealand, 2018 £26

Fresh, crisp and zesty with aromas of citrus and passion fruit, combined with intense flavours of lime and gooseberry. This multi-award winning brand is a fantastic example of why New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc is so popular.

8 Domaine St Louis Picpoul de Pinet, France, 2018 £26

Known as the 'Chablis of the South' this crisp dry white is light citrus in colour. To taste there is plenty of peach and melon and grapefruit. A long, dry finish. Great easy drinking wine with lighter dishes.

9 Gewürztraminer, Villa Wolf, Ernst Loosen, Pfalz, Germany, 2017 £27

The lovely floral Gewürztraminer aroma is true to the variety, with classic rose petal and lychees, without being heavy or over the top. This is clean, crisp and elegantly poised with a delightfully delicate crackle on the palate. The mouth filling mid palate fades gently to a zippy fresh finish.

10 Sauvignon, Chateau du Cros, Bordeaux, France, 2017 £29

Chateau du Cros Sauvignon Bordeaux is delicate and aromatic with floral, citrus, grapefruit, cut grass aromas and good mineral character. The palate is bold with hints of melon, quince, herbaceous notes, lemon and lime. Has a creamy texture and good acidity. New world style with old world charm.

11 Zelos Albarino, DO Rias Baixas, Spain, 2017 £30

Zelos Albarino is a light golden colour. The nose is fruity and floral with blossom-y notes, hints of tropical fruit and some citrus notes. The wine is fresh and vibrant with good complexity, good acidity and a long after-taste

12 Sancerre "Domaine de La Tonnellerie", Loire Valley, France, 2017 £35

A modern style Sancerre – aromatic and relatively fruity. Gooseberries with some nettle & herb influence, all in a light accessible style. This award winning wine will just about partner anything light, and drinks perfectly on its own.

38 Shiraz, Simon Hackett, McLaren Vale, Australia, 2015	£40
Great colour, nice and deep. The nose has spicy peppery aromas leading onto a palate with loads of fruit which is sweet and ripe typical of the grape variety. You can catch some pepper, lack on the palate and the vanilla from the American oak with the finish being firm and a nice length of palate
39 Chateau Ste Michelle Cabernet Sauvignon, Columbia Valley, US, 2015	£40
From an area ideal for growing Cabernet grapes, this is a very accessible style. An inviting red wine that highlights Washington red fruit and gives plenty of complexity, structure and silky tannins. Also very versatile with food.
40 Calar del Rio Mundo, Vino de la Tierra de Castilla, Spain, 2013	£45
Calar del Rio Mundo Tempranillo has a lovely, vibrant dark purple / red colour. The nose is packed with dark fruits, cherries, plums and hints of spice. It is a full-bodied wine and dense in the mouth. The palate has lots of jammy dark fruit, dark cherries and plums, spices, a touch of fruitcake and hint of coconut-ty oak. This is a big powerful wine with grippy tannins and a dry, long and persistent finish.
41 E. Guigal Gigondas, Rhone, France,	£50
A neighbour of Châteauneuf-du-Pape and made from a very similar blend of grapes. This has a lovely creamy, ripe sweet black fruit of blueberries and blackcurrants. Plenty of sweet oak on the palate, nicely balanced fruit and acidity and fine tannins.
42 Zenato Ripassa Valpolicella Ripasso Superiore DOC, Italy, 2015	£50
Deep ruby-red in color, this wine shows intense aromas of blackberries and black currants underscored by aromas of spice pepper, and a hint of leather. On the palate, it is smooth and viscous with well-balanced acidity and alcohol.
43 Chateau Montlabert, St Emilion Grand Cru, Bordeaux, France, 2014	£60
Chateau Montlabert has a dark red colour with good concentration. The nose is fragrant and powerful with aromas of ripe fruit, black cherries, floral notes, hints of spice and herbaceous notes with a good bit of vanilla-y oak. The palate is full-bodied with more ripe black and red fruit, hints of chocolate and oaky flavours. Good tannins and a sophisticated, long finish.
44 Domaine Faiveley Nuits St Georges 1er Cru Les Damodes, Burgandy, France,	£115
Domaine Faiveley Nuits St Georges 1er Cru Les Damodes has a deep ruby red hue. The expressive nose opens up with black fruits, spice and subtle toasted notes. The attack is elegant and refined and the palate is characterised by floral notes and a touch of mocha.

Dessert wines	£/50ml
---------------	--------

Château Septy, Monbazillac, France	£5.00
A wonderfully balanced Monbazillac with exotic aromas of orange blossom and apricot. Zesty citrus and honeyed flavours on the full-bodied palate combine with smoky, nutty notes and tangy acidity. Enjoy as an aperitif or with fish, white meat and blue cheese.

Stellar Heaven On Earth Organic Muscat D'alexandrie, South Africa	£5.50
A superb dessert wine, light gold in colour. The nose is very fragrant and hints at roses, apricots and pine trees on a hot windless day. The delicate flavours of the roses and apricots come through on the taste and are held together by wisps of rooibos, ending with pine nuts. Serve chilled as an aperitif, with rich cheeses

Chateau du Cros Loupiac AC, Famille Boyer, France	£6.50
Chateau du Cros Loupiac has a brilliant, light golden yellow colour. The nose is complex and aromatic with aromas of peach, apricot, citrus, acacia and a slight hint of toasty oak. The palate is very sweet but with good acidity so that the wine is not cloying. There are toasty oak notes from the barrel ageing but the palate is dominated by apricot and plum with some candied, honey character beginning to develop. It has a very long, lingering finish with great subtlety and elegance.
