Red Wines continued

- 21 Rioja Tinto “Arjona”, Rioja Alta, Spain, £26
This has lovely cherry fruit flavours and a hint of vanilla. With a little Crianza wine added, it has an extra dimension. Grapes: 95% Tempranillo, 5% Mazuelo. Delicious red for any occasion.
- 22 Cabernet Sauvignon, “Running Duck”, South Africa, £26
The label was created after seeing Stellar’s Indian Runner ducks patrolling the vineyards, protecting the vines in the most eco-friendly way. This is organic, vegan friendly, Fair trade and sulphur and preservative free but the most important thing is that it is quite delicious.
- 23 Château des Joualles Bordeaux Supérieur, Vignobles Freylon, France, £31
Château des Joualles, a dark, ruby, red coloured wine, is a fine example of a Bordeaux Superieur and has typical notes of cedar wood, tobacco, berry fruits and cassis on the nose. The palate is soft and supple, there are more blackcurrant notes leading to a warm, lengthy finish. Soft, supple and feminine in style
- 24 Sogatia, Chianti Riserva DOCG, Tuscany, Italy, £30
Juicy and mouth-filling with good freshness and a touch of spice and ripe tannins. This is an attractive, modern-styled Chianti Riserva to enjoy for its vibrant fruit, smooth texture and fine finish. Granted a DOCG designation which is a key sign of quality in Italy.
- 25 Malbec, Neethlingshof Estate, Stellenbosch, South Africa, £32
Neethlingshof Estate Malbec has a good, dark ruby colour. The nose is redolent of prunes and raisins with oak spices and dark chocolate in the background. The palate is rich and full with prunes and cherry flavours, supported by soft tannins. Great all rounder wine, goes great with all foods
- 26 Shiraz, Simon Hackett, McLaren Vale, Australia, £32
Great colour, nice and deep. The nose has spicy peppery aromas leading onto a palate with loads of fruit which is sweet and ripe typical of the grape variety. You can catch some pepper, lack on the palate and the vanilla from the American oak with the finish being firm and a nice length of palate
- 27 Rioja, Bodegas Valde La Cierva Crianza, Spain, £34
Valde La Cierva Crianza has a dark red colour with violet hints. The nose has Intense and complex aromas with hints of ripe red fruit well combined balsamic and stewed fruits. The palate has a sweet attack, it is ripe and full-bodied with sweet tannins. It is well-structured and harmonious with a persistent finish.
- 28 Hautes Côtes de Beaune, “Domaine Moillard Grivot” France, £40
This wine’s hue is characterised by an average intensity. The bouquet is replete with aromas so unmistakably Pinot. The tannin content provides for a solid structure and good aging capacity
- 29 Chateau Ste Michelle Cabernet Sauvignon, Columbia Valley, US, £42
From an area ideal for growing Cabernet grapes, this is a very accessible style. An inviting red wine that highlights Washington red fruit and gives plenty of complexity, structure and silky tannins. Also very versatile with food.
- 30 Calar del Rio Mundo, Vino de la Tierra de Castilla, Spain, £47
A lovely, vibrant dark purple / red colour. The nose and palate is packed with dark fruits, cherries, plums and hints of spice, a touch of fruitcake and hint of coconut-ty oak. It is a full-bodied wine and dense in the mouth. This is a big powerful wine with grippy tannins and a dry, long and persistent finish.
- 31 Zenato Ripassa Valpolicella Ripasso Superiore DOC, Italy, £57
Deep ruby-red in color, this wine shows intense aromas of blackberries and black currants underscored by aromas of spice pepper, and a hint of leather. On the palate, it is smooth and viscous with well-balanced acidity and alcohol.
